Hixburg

Hixburg, Luella Martin, who had been confined to the infirmary at Marion College for a week, was well enough to come home on Monday, February 27.

She spent the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Martin. Another daughter, Anne Martin, a student at Madison College, was also at home over the week-end.

Cumberland Cabell, Negro caretaker at River Circle Farm passed away on Friday, Feb. 24. For many years, Cumberland had worked for Mr. Hans van Nes Allen, and he was respected by both races. Mr. Allen came from Tulsa, Oklahoma, to see about the burial. The funeral service was conducted in the Allen living room. According to Cumberland's expressed wishes, he was laid to rest on a hill back of the house, where he said he "could look down on the house where he had been so happy."

For ten days, Mr. Donald Webb was in Lynchburg General Hospital where he underwent surgery. He came home Friday and is convalescing nicely.

The Rev. W. M. Black continues to improve. He walks down to the post-office and back.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Gilliam of Prospect were Sunday afternoon guests of the Willie Hixes. Mr. Gilliam, who underwent surgery several months ago, was looking fat and well.

Mrs. Minnie Gobble has been sick since December. Her appetite is good and we hope to see an improvement soon.

Mrs. Susie Coleman Covington was taken to Southside Community Hospital for treatment.

Mr. Lester Goin has accepted a position with Johns Equipment Co. in Farmville.

E. K. Graham and family, of Mount Ulla, N. C., called on Mrs. W. M. Erwin and the Marvin Glovers on Saturday. The Grahams were en-route to Washington, D.C. to spend the week-end.

The congregation at Walker's Presbyterian Church at Hixburg, on Sunday morning listened with enjoyment when soft sacred music came from the newly installed electric organ. Mrs. Walter Carson fingered the keyboards, and that was the initial performance of the new instrument in a church service.

Dr. Twyman Williams went to Richmond on Monday. Tuesday he was to enter Stuart Circle Hospital where he would undergo a major operation on Wednesday. He expected to remain in the hospital for six days.

Mr. J. S. Hix, of Thomasville, N. C. will be the guest of the Willie Hixes from Tuesday until Thursday.

Fourty farmers were guests of Rogner Guano Company at a dinner in the Pamplin Elementary School Cafeteria on Friday evening. After the meal, slides of farming activities and a were shown.

NOTICE

First National Trust and Savings Bank
Trust Department P. O. Box 678
Lynchburg, Virginia
March 1, 1961

To Customers of the Late Harold Y. Spencer, Druggist:

Upon the death of Mr. Spencer on October 10, 1960, Mr. Charles F. James has been helping this bank as executor of Mr. Spencer's estate with the collection of monthly accounts due the drug store. Many of these accounts have been completely settled with Mr. Spencer's estate, although there still remain some with balances due.

With this letter Mr. James is mailing out a final statement of your account with the late Mr. Spencer. It will greatly help both Mr. James and the estate if you can arrange to pay this account direct to Mr. James by March 15, 1961. After that date Mr. James will turn over to this bank all of the outstanding accounts. We shall appreciate your cooperation in paying this account promptly as possible so that you will not have to be inconvenienced by arranging to make further payments in Lynchburg. Should you not be able to complete payment of your account by March 15 direct to Mr. James, please advise Mr. James before that date when you will make payment.

I am certain that the new owners of Spencer Drug Store appreciate your continuing business with them.

Very truly your,
S. H. Williams, Jr.,
